Friends of the Oregon Library Membership Form for 2023

Welcome Friends. Now is the time to renew your membership. Funds raised by the Friends are used to support immediate and long-range library projects, such as the Summer Reading Programs for children, teens, and adults.

As a member you will be the first to receive Book Ends, the organization's newsletter. The newsletter tells you what is going on at the library and what is happening with the Friends. Members are also eligible for special previews at our used book sales. Please join today and support our local library.
